Subject: Fwd: Insulation rebates

There was a recent TV news report about the residential home insulation rebate program that I thought was presented negatively.

I have participated in the program and am writing this to express my appreciation for it.

Although I only qualified for 1 of the 2 available rebates for attic insulation, it still enabled me to upgrade my attic with additional insulation that I wouldn't have done otherwise.

My family has already noticed a difference and we're looking forward to lower utility bills.

Thank You!
